

California Independent Schools Business Officers Association

HR WORKSHOP 2021

Christine Walchuk is an independent consultant specializing in training and program development. She brings over 30 years of experience in corporate settings as well as higher education.

Chris began her career in the field of Career Planning and Placement in a University setting. She spent five years providing career counseling, developing and presenting group workshops on career-related issues and managing student internships. The next eleven years were spent in a corporate setting in a variety of Human Resource Management positions. These experiences provided Chris with extensive training opportunities focusing on leadership and management development, team building, group facilitation, performance management, coaching and counseling, diversity, train the trainer, communication and presentation skills. Her positions afforded her the opportunity to work with all levels, from entry level hourly employees to senior management. Chris is a DDI (Development Dimensions International) Certified Master Trainer and a Qualified MBTI Administrator.

For the past 18 years Chris has worked as an independent consultant on Training and Development projects for a variety of training and EAP organizations including; Lifecare, Balancing Life's Issues, Ceridian Lifeworks, Cigna Behavioral Health, Anthem, Aetna, Horizon, Optum, Humana, Workplace Solutions and American Management Association. She has presented seminars and training programs nationally as well as internationally, for their many clients including Non-profit agencies, Universities, Healthcare facilities, Government Agencies and a large number of Fortune 500 companies. Many of her current projects have focused on the area of Work/Life Balance, Planning and Organizing, Time Management, Stress Management, Change Management, Communication Skills, Emotional Intelligence, Resiliency, Mental Health in the Workplace, Positive Psychology, Health and Wellness and many others. Chris loves working with people to help them manage life's challenges and thrive in the process.

Chris attended Fordham University in New York where she received a Bachelor of Science in Psychology and a Masters of Science in Education with a specialty in Counseling.